DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of claims 23-27 in the reply filed on January 19, 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Objections

2. Claim 23 is objected to because it fails to clearly identify what the applicant regards as the invention. The claim recitation of "integral interferometrically-coupled structure" is not clear. It is assumed that the applicant is referring to a Fabry-Perot type cavity, however, this is not explicitly clear. Claims 24-27 are objected to because they inherit the deficiencies of claim 23. Appropriate action is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 23- 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Seeser et al. (2002/0191268). Seeser teaches a switchable optical filter comprising: a plurality of interferometrically-coupled Fabry-Perot spacer filled cavities (e.g. 102, 104, 106, 108, 110 and 326) with a passband that may shift as a function of an applied temperature (e.g. control variable) via electrodes (e.g. 316 and 318). (See e.g. paragraphs 50-59, 72-82, and Figs. 1 and 6a)

While Seeser teaches a temperature controlled bandpass region (spacer cavity), two of such regions are not explicitly taught. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate two of such regions in the device of Seeser to allow for control of more than one wavelength of a multi-wavelength signal (channel) passing through the filter. One would have been motivated to control the filtering (attenuation) of more than one wavelength (channel) because as taught by Seeser in the background of the invention (see e.g. paragraphs 9-13) optical channels may be separated from a common DWDM signal using filters and as different channels may have different signal levels it is often desirable to adjust the amplitude of one channel with respect to another.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The various references listed on the attached PTO-892 teach similar devices as Seeser.
